T.A.G. Update

by Sponsor Kat McKee

Happy holidays! I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving. During these strange times we need to be sure to be thankful for all that we have. Even though we may not have been able to gather like we usually do, we need to be thankful that we still have our family. Many across this country have lost loved ones in the past several months. I am thankful for my family, especially my daughter who is a doctor in Boston working the frontlines. We may not get to physically be with our loved ones for the holidays but technology still allows us to be together.

The Teen section at the library is still improving. We are constantly adding new books to the collection. If you have any requests please let me know. I will be putting an order in after the first of the year and would love your input. I want this library to be something you want and help create.

Stay healthy :)

Book Review

Midnight Sun

By Stephanie Meyer

This is the Twilight book told from Edward's perspective. If you are a fan of the Twilight series you will enjoy this book. It lets the reader see Edward's fears and anxieties about his strong connection to Bella. The daily struggles to keep her safe and protected. I enjoyed reading the complete Twilight Saga, but felt this was too similar to the first book. I think Ms. Meyer even used the same text in parts. I don't know what I expected because it is the same story.

TEEN ADVISORY GROUP

TAG

Teens grades 9-12 are welcome to become members of the Teen Advisory Group (TAG)

Members commit to attending one meeting per month and give their advice on how to make the library and the Teen Space better. TAG members can also volunteer to help with other projects like preparing for and/or assisting with programs.
